Discover the Story Behind Event University

Event University was created with one clear purpose – to teach event management the way it actually happens in the real world. No outdated theory. No generic classroom learning. Here, students learn by doing – working on live events, planning real projects, and being mentored by industry professionals from day one. Our goal is simple:

Turn passion into a confident, Job-ready career..!!

“When I started my journey in the event industry, I realized that passion alone isn’t enough – you need the right platform, mentorship, and opportunities. Event University was built to give students that foundation.” – Piyush Matta
